Study according to the CORE-Principle

Your university o.A.S.

A warm welcome. We in NRW.

Our promise

You are the focus of our actions

We are the SRH University of Applied Sciences in North Rhine-Westphalia. Three campuses in Hamm, in the Rhineland (joint campus of the SRH universities) and in Münster (joint campus of the SRH universities) offer around 850 students from over 25 nations almost 30 accredited German and English-language study programmes at bachelor and master level in the fields of management, social work, business, logistics, engineering, health and psychology.

Since 2005, we have helped countless students graduate, achieve sustained success, and thus launch successful careers. Would you like to do the same? We'd love to. We offer you a varied and innovative course of study, a wide range of future- and practice-oriented bachelor and master degree programmes, and maximum support - for the start of your career.

SRH. We belong to this.

A passion for life

Over 16,000 people at work

We are a strong team working for the community. Because life is simply better enjoyed to the full together. For us, this passion is our greatest motivation - for you, a source of new zest for life. We are at work every day - for you. Our goal is to improve people's quality of life and opportunities. We see ourselves as ideologically neutral, but committed to common values, on the basis of which we actively shape the education and healthcare system with our offerings. The well-being of all our customers is our top priority.

Our claim

We act with heart and mind

What has driven us at SRH for over 50 years are our shared values. They guide our actions and make up our special corporate culture. Together with the people who live them day by day, they have made us one of the leading education and healthcare providers.

Mission? Success.

Personal and close

You can choose from a wide range of courses and study freely in small study groups.

Your learning coach

Our lecturers are professionals in their field and your personal learning coaches. Many of them hold prominent leadership positions in business, industry and society.

Practice-oriented

During your studies, you will work on real-life projects. In this way, you not only further develop your professional skills, but also sharpen your soft skills. Internships, projects, guest lectures and excursions help you to gain practical experience.

Awarded & recognized. Our quality was confirmed.

The SRH University of Applied Sciences in North Rhine-Westphalia offers you a high-quality and internationally recognized study program. Our university is state and institutionally accredited, internationally networked and has been awarded for its learning & teaching model.

Institutionally accredited

In 2013, the university received the seal of approval from Germany's highest scientific body, the Science Council. With this accreditation, the Council ensures the quality of research and teaching and checks whether they meet recognized standards. Among other things, the Science Council praises the high level of identification of the teaching staff with the university and the pronounced commitment to teaching and student support. In 2018, we were institutionally reaccredited. In its vote, the Science Council highlights a positive development of the university. It also confirms that the university is valued as a cooperation partner in the region by companies and institutions in the social sector.

Award for our CORE principle

In 2018, the Stifterverband recognized the CORE teaching and learning model with the Genius Loci Award, the only institutional award for excellent teaching in Germany. With the CORE principle (Competence Oriented Research and Education), SRH created a unique teaching and learning model in 2012 based on scientific findings from learning and brain research.

Top positions in CHE rankings

In 2020, study programs in the departments of Social Sciences and Technology and Business occupied a total of eight places in the top group. Specifically, the bachelor degree programmes in „Social Work“ at SRH University were awarded top rankings in the CHE University Rankings 2020 in the five categories of „Practical Orientation,“ „Supervision by Teachers,“ „Study Organization,“ „Examinations,“ and „Infrastructure“ of the programme. In addition, the CHE ranking praised the fact that all professors can demonstrate current non-university professional experience.

The Department of Technology and Economics placed in the top group in the areas of „Practical orientation of studies“ and „Fast completion of studies“.
